Novelty Shirts for Men

That Cannot Be Seen Elsewhere.

One of those creations with innumerable tucks and a color treatment in the bosom and cuffs that makes a very smart-looking shirt, and one that the young fellow with different dress opinions will want to wear. They can't be seen elsewhere.

And the First Spring Shipment Of Men's Fiber Hose Has Just Reached Us

Black, tans, navy blue, grays, and white.

Two very strong features are noticeable in these hose. First, they have every appearance of being all silk, possessing the luster and feel of the silk, which is never lost in the laundry. Second, they are far more durable than silk.

For the Early Spring Season

Men Can Choose New Tan High Shoes

Tan Shoes will be a great favorite with men for the early spring season, before going into the low shoes, and we have some smart and clever new models that have the snap and style individual dressers will admire.

Styles for young men are a particular feature, the points of newness being many and different, ranging from the extreme English types to those of a more conservative standard. Preference is being shown the English models, however, the tapering toes and low heels being very striking in appearance and all that comfort could suggest.

Styles for men of more advanced years who prefer comfort to extreme style.

$4.00, $5.00, and $6.00 Pair.

SOCIETY

By KATHLEEN SUMNER LINCOLN.

The President was entertained at a dinner last night by the members of the Cabinet and their wives in the red room of the New House. Owing to her indisposition Mrs. Wilson was unable to be present. The Secretary of Agriculture and Mrs. Houston also were absent. Miss Nona McAdoo was present with the Secretary of the Treasury. The Minister of the Legation, Miss Wilson, Miss Bones, the Secretary to the President and Mrs. Tamm, were the only guests outside of the Cabinet circle.

The room was decorated with American beauty roses. The bougainvillea and orange bouquets were of gardenias.

The Vice President and Mrs. Thomas R. Marshall were the guests of Mrs. Thomas P. Walsh last night in a box party at the New National Theater to see David Warfield in "The Auctioneer."

Mr. Walter S. Penfield gave a dinner last night at the University Club in honor of Dr. Francisco J. Peynado, the Dominican Minister, who sails for his home within a few days. His guests included Dr. Francisco Duany, the Minister from Salvador; Mr. Manuel Vega-Calderson, the charge d'affaires of Cuba; Mr. Francisco J. Yanes, the assistant director of the Pan-American Union; Mr. J. E. Lefevre, the secretary of the Panama Legation; Mr. J. A. Cornudas, the secretary of the Dominican Legation; Mr. Boas W. Long, chief of the Latin-American division of the Department of State; Mr. W. T. S. Doyle, who was the predecessor of Mr. Long; and Col. M. M. Parker, president of the University Club.

Senator and Mrs. Henry L. Meyers entertained at a dinner last night at their apartment at the Toronto. Their guests were Senator and Mrs. Reed, of Missouri; Senator and Mrs. Thompson, of Kansas; Miss Thompson, and Mr. and Mrs. Stout, of Montana.

Mrs. Anna Katharine Green Robins, who has been visiting Mrs. Sanders Johnston, at her home in Washington, left yesterday. Thirty years ago, just after the publication of her famous novel, "The Leavenworth Case," she was also a house guest of Mrs. Johnston, and recently her new novel, "Dark Hollow," appeared in print, a happy coincidence for both host and guest.

Mrs. W. T. Burch will be at home this afternoon at her residence, 1027 Connecticut avenue.

Mrs. Kate Waller Barrett was the guest of honor at the Congressional Club reception yesterday afternoon.

A delightful address on "Social Conditions," after which tea was served. Mrs. Duncan U. Fletcher received the guests, and those who assisted in dispensing the hospitality of the afternoon were Mrs. Bartlett, of Georgia; Mrs. Barchfield, of Pennsylvania; Mrs. Alexander, of Missouri; Mrs. Austin, of Tennessee; Mrs. Boriand, of Missouri; Mrs. Alney, of Kentucky; Mrs. Beakes, of Michigan; Mrs. Anderson, of Minnesota; Mrs. Rathrick, of Ohio; Mrs. Blackman, of Alabama; Mrs. Avis, of West Virginia; Mrs. Baker, of New Jersey; Mrs. Barkley, of Kentucky; Mrs. Beakes, of Michigan; Mrs. Bell, of California; Mrs. Barnard, Mrs. Andrews, Mrs. Barney, Mrs. Boardman, Mrs. Belmont, and Mrs. Bentley.

Mrs. Aiken, of South Carolina, and Mrs. Anthony, of Kansas, presided at the table. The ushers were Miss Smith, of Georgia; Miss Volstead, of Minnesota; the Misses Thacher, of Massachusetts, and Miss Trimble.

Mrs. Frederick Chapin entertained at a charming luncheon yesterday in honor of Viscountess Chinda, wife of the Japanese Ambassador.

Invited to meet her were Mrs. Pezet, Mrs. T. P. O'Connor, Mrs. Julius Lay, Mrs. Ely, Mrs. Wilder, Mrs. Douglas, Mrs. Matzoka, Mrs. Ohta, Mrs. Swager, Mrs. Allen, Mrs. O'Neil, Mrs. Joseph Hampton, Mrs. Alexander Britton, Mrs. Ridgely, Mrs. Pearson, and Mrs. Thacher.

After luncheon Miss E. Baker will give a program of classical dances.

JULES AND FRANK LOMBARD SING

While Men Enlist to Help Save the Union Cause from Defeat.

"Twas the summer of '61, President Lincoln had just issued his second call for troops. The ninety-two men had served their time. Bull Run and its rout had inspired the world that the volunteers from Dixie under Mars Robert were first-class fighting men. The prospect of a long war hung like a pall over the North. In Chicago, at this time, lived a publicist of church music, the toastmaster, who had known of the war and its rout, and who knew its power to touch the human heart.

George F. Root, Lincoln's second call, he felt the pressing need for a rallying song to arouse the drooping patriotism of the hour. So with heart and hand he penned the words and music of the "Battle Hymn of Freedom."

The crowd caught the refrain and like a mighty ocean wave whose power no man can arrest, the music welled upward and onward until the whole North caught the inspiration of the "hymn" responding, and "springing to the call," carried their rallying song to camp and field, many of them yielding their lives while still "Shouting the Battle Cry of Freedom."

Charles H. Chubb, pianist, and George F. Root, "Songs That Never Grow Old" are in The Herald's collection. Read the distribution plan on the coupon printed in another column and clip the coupon today.

MRS. MABEL H. SLATER IS SUED BY BROTHER

Mystery Attached to Suit Against Boston Woman, Known to Poor as "Lady Bountiful."

Boston, March 6.—Mrs. Mabel Hunt Slater, the Back Bay society leader and the "Lady Bountiful" to thousands of millworkers at Webster, was sued recently by her brother, Paul Hunt, for $250,000, just as she was leaving Boston on a trip to Japan with her two daughters, Misses Esther and Ray Slater.

There was some mystery about the nature of the suit. The first notice came in the filing in the Suffolk registry of deeds of an attachment for $250,000. The suit is an action on contract, but beyond this no information was given out by attorneys in the case.

The suit, it is thought, is the result of a long-standing family quarrel and is a renewal of litigation which has been going on for ten years or more. When H. N. Slater died his property was put in the hands of trustees, but owing to differences between the heirs these were removed and others appointed.

These trustees sought to sell the property, and after years of litigation the Supreme Court ordered a sale. This was held in April of last year, but there was no bidder, and it was decided that the property, which consists mainly of the Slater mills at Webster, should remain in the family, and litigation apparently had ceased.

MISSOURIANS TO DINE

Champ Clark Will Be Toastmaster at Banquet at Raucher's.

The Missouri Society will hold its fourth annual banquet at Raucher's Saturday evening, March 14. Speaker Champ Clark will be the toastmaster. The following Missourians, who have gained distinction in other States, Senator John T. Shafroth, of Colorado; Representative Frank W. Mondell, of Wyoming; Representative Ruel S. McCall, of Oklahoma; Representative Scott Ferris, of Oklahoma, and the entire Missouri delegation in Congress have signified their intention to attend with their families.

It is expected that 400 Missourians will be at the banquet. The officers of the society are O. W. Wyatt, president; Thomas L. Ruby, first vice president; Mrs. Sarah T. Andrews, second vice president; O. P. Singleton, treasurer, and Hubert Newson, secretary.

CORNELL ALUMNI TO DINE

President Schurman Comes Here Especially for Banquet.

About 200 alumni and former students of Cornell University will gather at the University Club this evening for the annual dinner of the Cornell Club of Washington.

The speakers will be the president, Jacob Gould Schurman, of the university, who has come from Ithaca to attend this annual reunion of the Cornell alumni of the Capital; Representative Maurice Connolly, of Iowa; James S. Parker, of New Jersey; Dr. L. O. Howard, chief of the Bureau of Entomology, Department of Agriculture; William A. White, superintendent of the Government Hospital for the Insane; Prof. L. C. Corbett, assistant chief of the Bureau of Plant Industry of the Department of Agriculture; Paul E. Leach, and Ernest Kelly. The dinner committee is composed of J. W. Turrentine, chairman; Herbert R. Cox, secretary; Eugene H. McLaughlin, with Dr. J. A. Holmes, chief of the Bureau of Mines, who is president of the club.
